Training Goals

This training presents some of the most effective and new ways companies in the financial sector can successfully engage with consumers in the new communications reality; including the challenges of the current shifts, while responding to some of the fears, barriers and crucial questions marketers have:

- How effective can the new age of creative communication campaigns be?
- What kind of new tools and techniques can be used to increase effectiveness of such approaches?
- How to approach innovation challenges and create surprising new ideas for new products or services?
- How to evaluate and assess the value of creative ideas and their potential in achieving significant marketing and communication results?
- How can the agency and client be on the same page and create better creative & effective communication?

The workshop will cover 3 tools

Part 1 -Creativity to Discover.

The majority of the most creative and effective award winning campaigns are based on game-changing insights. Yet, uncovering a truly powerful insight is one of the hardest tasks in marketing and advertising.
